Pastor's Column

“Bendito el hombre que confía en el Señor y en él pone su esperanza”. Estas palabras están tomadas de la primera lectura que hemos escuchado hoy, del libro del profeta Jeremías. La confianza es un acto de fe. Tendemos a confiar en las personas cercanas pero no solemos confiar en aquellas que no conocemos bien. De esta manera, el profeta nos invita a acercarnos al Señor para sentir su presencia y confiar en que Él está siempre con nosotros, ya sea en los momentos de alegría o en los desafíos de la vida. Al dedicar tiempo a la oración, nuestra confianza en Dios crece. Hay momentos en nuestra vida en los que necesitamos cerrar los ojos e imaginar que estamos en las manos de Dios. Cuando nos encontramos sin palabras, podemos decir: “Señor, confío en Ti y pongo mi vida en Tus manos”.

Estoy muy agradecido por la respuesta de nuestros feligreses que ya se han inscrito para nuestro retiro de Cuaresma del 8 de marzo. Este será un tiempo para preparar la Cuaresma, centrándonos en dedicar más tiempo a la oración, a la escucha de la Palabra de Dios y a fomentar la fraternidad. Agradezco a todos los que ya se han registrado. Si aún no se han registrado, sólo tienen esta semana para hacerlo. No pierdan esta oportunidad de crecimiento espiritual.

¡Que tengan una semana bendecida!

fr. Rafael, sjc

"Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose hope is the Lord." These words are taken from the first reading we heard today, from the book of the prophet Jeremiah. Trust is an act of faith. We tend to trust people close to us but don't usually trust those we don't know well. In this way, the prophet invites us to draw closer to the Lord to feel His presence and trust that He is always with us, whether during joyful times or in life's challenges. As we dedicate time to prayer, our trust in God grows. There are moments in our lives when we need to close our eyes and imagine that we are in God's hands. When we find ourselves at a loss for words, we can say: "Lord, I trust You and place my life in Your hands."

I am very grateful for the response from our parishioners who have already signed up for our Lenten retreat on March 8. This will be a time to prepare for Lent, focusing on dedicating more time to prayer, listening to the Word of God, and fostering fraternity. I thank everyone who has already registered. If you haven't registered yet, you only have this week to do so. Don't miss this opportunity for significant spiritual growth.

Have a blessed week!

A Year with Venerable Leo John Dehon 6th Installment

Fr. Leo John Dehon: The Priest with a Pen. Last month, we learned how beloved Fr. Dehon was for his many good works among the people. Fr. Dehon knew the importance of the apostolic work that his community was busy with, and he also knew that this required a deep spiritual grounding to sustain it. The source of the community's strength must come from the Gospel, so Fr. Dehon wrote numerous meditation books applying the Gospel to daily life. A central theme is love. The Crowns of Love to the Sacred Heart, begins this way: You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. (Deuteronomy 6:5) In this retreat we wish to lay the foundation of our love for the Sacred Heart. But we must first consider how God has loved us, how He gave Himself to us. Before contemplating the Heart of Jesus it will be well to stop a moment to consider the Heart of God Himself. Before God gave us the Heart of His Son, the Blessed Trinity gave us its Heart from the very moment of creation. "Let us do a great and important work," said the Holy Trinity. "Let us make humankind in our image and likeness (Genesis 1:26)." (First Meditation) This meditation opens our hearts to knowing we are beloved children of God. Believing in this great gift of love, how can we not want to respond to God with love, and share that love with others? We are called to do this, uniting prayer and ministry, making our lives into what Fr. Dehon calls a "never-ending Mass."

"Every person has inalienable dignity, duties, and rights...with an intelligent, free and immortal soul which God created."
Fr. Dehon
