Mis Hermanas y Hermanos,

Hoy la Iglesia celebra la Fiesta de la Presentación del Señor. Cada año, el 2 de febrero, nos unimos a la Sagrada Familia cuando presentan al Niño Jesús en el templo de Jerusalén, exactamente 40 días después de su nacimiento. Desde los primeros siglos, la Iglesia ha conmemorado el día en que la Salvación de Dios se revela al mundo, también conocida como la Fiesta de la Luz. Por esta razón, la Misa de hoy presenta un rito de apertura especial que incluye la bendición de las velas. Los animo a colocar esta vela bendita en un lugar especial de su hogar. Si bien es posible que no la mantengan encendida todo el año, les recomiendo que la enciendan cuando busquen la guía del Espíritu Santo para tomar una decisión o cuando se enfrenten a dificultades.

En la Fiesta de la Presentación del Señor, la Iglesia también observa el Día de la Vida Consagrada. Pero, ¿quiénes son las personas consagradas? Pertenecen a una orden religiosa y han hecho votos de pobreza, obediencia y castidad. ¿Sabían que los sacerdotes que sirven en nuestra parroquia son consagrados? Pertenece a la Orden Religiosa de los Sacerdotes del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Además, tenemos la bendición de contar con la presencia de las Hermanas Aida y Mirta en nuestra parroquia. En este día tan especial, los invito a ofrecer una oración por todos aquellos que están en la vida consagrada y a pedir por el aumento de las vocaciones a la vida religiosa.

Fraternalmente,

My Sisters and Brothers,

Today, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Each year, on February 2nd, we join the Holy Family as they present the Baby Jesus in the temple of Jerusalem, precisely 40 days after His birth. Since the earliest centuries, the Church has commemorated the day God's Salvation is revealed to the world, also known as the Feast of Light. For this reason, today's Mass features a special opening rite that includes the blessing of candles. I encourage you to place this blessed candle in a special spot in your home. While you may not keep it lit all year long, I recommend lighting it when you seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit to make a decision or when you are facing difficulties.

On the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, the Church also observes the Day of Consecrated Life. But who are consecrated persons? They belong to a religious order and have taken vows of poverty, obedience, and chastity. Did you know that the priests serving our parish are consecrated? We belong to the Religious Order of the Priests of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Additionally, we are blessed with the presence of Sisters Aida and Mirta in our parish. On this special day, I invite you to offer a prayer for all those in consecrated life and to pray for an increase in vocations to religious life.

Fraternally,

A Year with Venerable Father Leo John Dehon

5th Installment

Fr. Leo John Dehon: The People's Priest: As we read earlier, many priests of Fr. Dehon's time saw religious life as a withdrawal from the world, but Fr. Dehon saw his newly formed Congregation as an apostolic community supporting each other in the midst of the world. Together, he and his collaborators went out to the streets and listened to the people, ministering in many different capacities but always in a spirit of love and oblation (as an offering to God). They brought open hearts and open minds to the people they encountered. Fr. Dehon organized many gatherings and conferences to promote dialogue around the social issues of his day. People were attracted by his kindness, wisdom and vision. People at many levels of society trusted him. "Sint Unum" was an important concept to Fr. Dehon. Translated from Latin, it means "that they may be one." He yearned for unity among his congregation and among the people of God. For Fr. Dehon, unity begins with our union with Christ, and then impelled by God's great love for us, we go out to the world to foster unity among people. His Congregation was characterized by the greatest care for people, particularly the most deprived.

"The simplest way of serving God is to serve by love. It is, indeed, the gentlest way. Fear intimidates; hope is not without a certain uneasiness, but love knows neither the torments of fear nor the alarm of hope." Fr. Dehon

Faith Formation

UPCOMING EVENTS

- Next Faith Formation Mass will be Feb. 01
- We will not have classes Feb. 8 & 9
- Please pray for our high school students who will be attending a retreat next week in preparation for their confirmation
- Interested in going to AYC? Parent meeting will be 3/16/25

EVENTOS PROXIMOS

- Próxima misa de Formación de Fe será el 01 de febrero.
- No tendremos clases el 8 y 9 de febrero.
- Por favor de orar por nuestros estudiantes de high school. Ellos estarán en retiro el próximo fin de semana en preparación de su confirmación.
- Interesando en asistir a AYC? Junta para padres sera 3/16/25

AYC is a wonderful opportunity offered by the Diocese for our church's youth to connect and build their relationship with God. Our Lady of Guadalupe invites students from our parish in grades 9 to 12 to participate.

If you are interested in attending, we will have a parent meeting on March 16, 2025, at 3 PM. A deposit of $25.00 will be required along with the interest form.

We do not expect parents to cover the full cost of the fee. Students will be encouraged to apply for scholarships, and we have scheduled several fundraisers to help cover expenses.
