¿Qué palabras han sido las más destacadas en sus conversaciones recientes? El Evangelio de hoy nos dice: "pues la boca habla de lo que está lleno el corazón." Estas palabras de Jesús nos guían a reflexionar sobre los pensamientos y sentimientos que albergamos en nuestro corazón. Constantemente nos invita a cultivar emociones positivas y a nutrir solo aquellas cosas que mejoran nuestras relaciones con Dios y con nuestros semejantes. Una persona con un corazón agradecido generalmente expresa palabras que bendicen y elevan a todos los que se cruzan en su camino.

Este miércoles marca el comienzo de la temporada de Cuaresma, un tiempo para prepararse para la Pascua. Tendremos seis misas ese día para dar la bienvenida a todos nuestros feligreses y visitantes que vienen a escuchar la palabra de Dios y recibir cenizas en la frente, simbolizando un período de penitencia y renovación. Los animo a comenzar esta temporada con entusiasmo y buenas intenciones para que la Cuaresma de 2025 pueda ser un tiempo de gracia para ustedes y toda su familia.

¡Que tengan una Cuaresma bendecida!

fr. Rafael, SJ

What words have been most prominent in your conversations recently? Today's Gospel tells us, "for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." These words of Jesus guide us to reflect on the thoughts and feelings we harbor in our hearts. He constantly invites us to cultivate positive emotions and to nurture only those things that enhance our relationships with God and our fellow human beings. A person with a grateful heart typically expresses words that bless and uplift all who cross their path.

This Wednesday marks the beginning of the Lenten season, a time to prepare for Easter. We will have six Masses that day to welcome all our parishioners and visitors who come to hear the word of God and receive ashes on their foreheads, symbolizing a period of penitence and renewal. I encourage you to start this season with enthusiasm and good intentions so that Lent 2025 can be a time of grace for you and your entire family.

Have a blessed Lent!

A Year with Venerable Father Leo John Dehon Seventh Entry

Fr. Leo John Dehon: The Pope's Preacher: In 1878, Pope Leo XIII issued a Decree of Praise for the Priests of the Sacred Heart, recognizing the invaluable ministries being done by the religious order Fr. Dehon founded. Fr. Dehon travelled to Rome to thank the Pope personally for this affirmation. At that meeting, Pope Leo XIII asked Fr. Dehon to "Preach my encyclicals." The Pope had been writing on contemporary issues of employment, the economy, and the need to protect the rights of workers. Fr. Dehon's education, experience and passion for the Church to be part of the solution made him an excellent choice to speak on these topics. Both men knew that the virtue of charity, or love, was central in addressing the social problems of their day. Pope Leo urged the clergy of his day to "secure the good of the people; and above all must earnestly cherish in themselves, and try to arouse in others, charity, the mistress and the queen of virtues." Fr. Dehon also connected charity to the devotion to the Sacred Heart: "The devotion to the Sacred Heart acts like the sun in the natural world. It warms and revives the spirits of those who understand it. For us, faith in the love of God will bring us back to life, and with it, hope and charity will be reawakened." For the next fifteen years Fr. Dehon was a tireless interpreter of Leo XIII's social teachings through writings, books, periodicals, and conferences. His writings are still influencing seminary education today.

"One of the purposes of society is precisely to assist members of the human family, through good social organization, to escape from the grip of misery." Fr. Leo John Dehon
